

AWMS2018

University of Tasmania, Sandy Bay, Hobart

Integrating wildlife management, nature conservation and production
in land, river and seascapes

Monday 3 Dec 2018

- Workshops: Evaluating wildlife management: principles, case studies and proposals (full day) and Drones for wildlife management (full day)
- Field trip: Exploring Flat Rock (full day)
- Social: Icebreaker (5-7pm), including a short address by the Governor of Tasmania Her Excellency Prof Kate Warner AC and Mr Warner.

Tuesday 4 Dec 2018

- Conference opening by Threatened Species Commissioner Dr Sally Box
- Keynote speaker: Chris Johnson - Rewilding Australia? New approaches for wildlife conservation in novel ecosystems
- Symposia: 1. Working towards effective 'multi-use' landscape management practices, and 2. Managing freshwater and marine systems for wildlife
- Poster Speed Talks and Poster Happy Hour 4:00 -6:00pm
- Social: AWMS Student Dinner and Early Career Researcher Networking Event

Wednesday 5 Dec 2018

- Symposia: 3. Harvesting and control of wildlife for commercial and environmental purposes, and 4. Management of wide-ranging species across the landscape
- AWMS Annual General Meeting
- Social: Conference Dinner - Theme: "Ice Age"

Thursday 6 Dec 2018

- Symposia: 5. Cultural practices in wildlife management - how and why? 6. Wildlife disease management, 7. Innovation in wildlife monitoring and management techniques, and 8. What does 'renewables (solar, wind, hydro)' mean for wildlife management?
- Closing Keynote: Assoc. Prof Elissa Cameron - The global horse: lessons from research and management of equids
- Night Field Trip: Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary (7-11pm)

Friday 7 Dec 2018

- Workshops: Writing Workshop (full day)
- Field Trip: Visit Bangor Property (full day)